Statutory Requirement to apply for a licence

A person who carries on or wishes to carry on a trust or company service business in Hong Kong is required to apply for a licence under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing Ordinance (Cap. 615) (“the AMLO”). Any person who carries on a trust or company service business in Hong Kong without a licence commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of up to HK$100,000 and imprisonment up to 6 months.

What is a trust or company service?

A trust or company service means the provision in Hong Kong by a person, by way of business, of one or more of the following service to other persons

Forming corporations or other legal persons

Providing a registered office, business address, correspondence or administrative address

Acting as, or arranging for another person to act as a director / secretary of a corporation / partner of a partnership or in a similar position in relation to other legal persons

Acting as, or arranging for another person to act as

- ◆ a trustee of an express trust; or
- ◆ a nominee shareholder for a person other than a corporation whose securities are listed on a recognized stock market

Persons exempted from the licensing requirements

- ◆ An authorized institution (as defined in the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155))
- ◆ A licensed corporation (as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571))
- ◆ An accounting professional (i.e. a Certified Public Accountant (“CPA”), a CPA (practising), a corporate practice of CPAs or a firm of CPAs (practising) as defined / registered under the Professional Accountants Ordinance (Cap. 50))
- ◆ A legal professional (i.e. a solicitor or a foreign lawyer as defined in the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Cap. 159))
